WILEESBARRE, PA., May I.—The epidemic at Plymouth is said to be this morning of a much more scrious nature than it has been for a week past. One hundred and thirty new cases have been reported since yesterday, making in all over six hundred persons now prostrated with the disease. A majority of the sufferers are improving, however, which fact is attributed to the cool weather. The death rate is now about three a day. The new cases are said to be of a milder form. At Nanticoke the disease has made its appearance within the last week, and

TO SUCCEED JUDGE WYLIE Wm. M. Merrick Appointed Associate

Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

The President to-day made the following appointment: Wm. M. Merrick, of Maryland, so e Associate Justice of the Supreme Court the District of Columbia, to succeed Andrew !

Wylie, retired.

Judge Merrick was born in Charles county Md., and comes of distinguished stock, ble father, Wm. D. Merrick, having filled several prominent positions in Maryland and served as U. S. Senator from 1838 to 1845, Judge Merrick studied law in Frederick and com-Merrick studied law in Frederick and commenced practice there. He soon attained high rank at the Maryland bar and was appointed judge of the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia by President Pierce. He held this position until he was legislated out of office by Congress in 1863, when he moved to near Ellicot City and resumed the practice of law in Baitimore. He entered actively into politics and represented the fifth Maryland district in Congress from 1873 to 1875. It was he who first uncovered the credit mobilier affair while he was a member of Congress. After his retirement from the House of Representatives Judge Merrick returned to the practice of his profession, and has appeared in many important cases in the Maryland courts.

Judge Merrick has two brothers—Richard T., who is well known in the District, and Geo. C., both lawyers of excellent ability.

both lawyers of excellent ability.
"Do you think this a good appointment?"
asked a STAR reporter of a prominent member of the District bar.
"Undoubtedly so," was the reply. "Judge Merrick is an able lawyer, possesses a trained and judicial mind, is upright in character, and will be absolutely fearless in his decisions. He would decide against his own father if the law would decide against his own father if the law and facts justified it. He is so thoroughly upright that he may bend backwards."

"Isn't Judge Merrick's appointment rather blow at Senator Gorman?" asked a STAR reporter of a prominent Maryland politician

Paterspire, Va., May 1.—The jury in the suit of the administrator of Fannie Royall agt. the Norfolk and Western railroad company for $10,000 damages, after having the case under consideration since Wednesday night, gave a verdict this morning for the plaintiff for $325. Fannie Royall was killed on the road by having her head crushed between the bumpers of two flat cars. A motion for a new trial will probably be made.

"No, only as was the appointment of Me Lane," was the reply, "though there is this difference: Toward McLane Gorman has a kindly feeling, yet he feared his popularity in the state, and was anxious to get him out of the way. For Judge Merrick Gorman has a positive dislike. Both the judge and his brother Richard have criticised Gorman's acts unsparingly, and, of course, he has no friendly feeling for either. Judge Merrick has a following in Maryland, which Mr. Gorman would very much like to secure, for he will want every assistance he can get to pull through as ance he can get to pull through at the next election, and the easiest way to make the inroad upon Judge Merrick's friends is to get their leader out of the way. His transfer to the bench here removes him entirely from Maryland politics, and so Gorman was not going to oppose the appointment."
